

Privacy Policy

We understand the importance of privacy and commit to safeguard your confidential information. Please read through our Privacy Policy to understand how your personal information will be treated as you make full use of our website and services.

This policy may change at any time without prior notice.

What personal information do we collect and what do we do with it?

We collect your information when you register for a workshop, fill out a form (such as the contact form), sign up for a newsletter, or enter other information on our site. You may be asked to enter your name, email address, mailing address, phone number, credit card information, medical history, or other details to facilitate the booking process.

We may use your personal information to process your transactions, communicate with you and send information regarding your booking, or to send information regarding activities of the Temple of the Way of Light and its sister organization, The Chaikuni Institute. You may unsubscribe from receiving future updates at any time by following the instructions at the bottom of each email.

Psychological Questionnaire

During the booking process of the Temple of the Way of Light, the applicant is required to fill in a psychological questionnaire that is powered by a non-profit organization called ICEERS (International Center for Ethnobotanical Education, Research & Service). Your responses will be associated with a number, with all identifying information removed. Only the staff of the Temple of the Way of light will have the information to link the reference number to the applicants identifying information. The data collected by ICEERS will be shared with the Temple of the Way of Light and is for the purpose of increasing the efficacy of the screening process to ensure safety of participants. ICEERS has agreed to not share, sell, or trade any of your personal (anonymous) information with outside parties under any circumstances without your permission and to collect and maintain the data on encrypted servers in compliance with Spanish Law 15/1999 of December 13th for the Protection of Private Data. ICEERS employs industry standard security measures to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under their control, but cannot guarantee complete security. ICEERS will maintain the data for a length of time appropriate to their needs. ICEERS Privacy Policy may be found here:

How do we protect your information?

We will not share, sell, or trade any of your personal information with outside parties under any circumstances without your permission. All personal and financial information is kept confidential within secured networks and is encrypted via Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology. Depending on your method of payment, some financial transactions are processed through a gateway provider and are not stored or processed on our servers.

All medical information that you provide to us is kept strictly confidential and will not be shared without your authorization as per the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA).

We may only release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law or to protect our or others' rights, property, or safety.

If a data breach occurs, we will notify registered users via email and in-site notification within 7 business days.

Do we use cookies?

Yes. We use cookies to remember your information as you complete workshop registration forms and to process your booking. We also use cookies to obtain feedback on how visitors are using our site to improve our web services. If you turn off cookies in your browser, some site features will be disabled and some of our services will not function properly.
